

Tatuaje Cabaiguan No.52

Art.nr. 506

The Tatuaje Cabaiguan, named after a city in the northern Sancti Spiritus province of Cuba, is a medium bodied cigar rolled in Nicaragua. Created by Pete Johnson and made by Jaime Garcia at the My Father Factory facility. A Connecticut seed shade grown Equadorian wrapper gives this cigar a burst of flavors and spice before lighting and mixes the Nicaraguan blend of fillers for an extremely flavorful smoke. Tasting notes include sweet cocoa, light black pepper and cedar.
